Plaintiffs,

ORDER

v.

RIMINI STREET, INC., a Nevada) corporation; SETH RAVIN, an individual;)

Defendants.

Before the court are plaintiffs Oracle USA, Inc., Oracle America, Inc., and Oracle International Corporation's (collectively "Oracle") motion to seal portions of the motion for costs and attorney's fees (Doc. #926¹), motion to seal declaration (Doc. #974), and motion to seal reply to motion for prejudgment interest (Doc. #983).

Also before the court is defendants Rimini Street, Inc. ("Rimini Street") and Seth Ravin's ("Ravin") (collectively "defendants") motion to seal portions of their opposition to Oracle's motion for prejudgment interest. Doc. #962.

As an initial matter, the court is acutely cognizant of the presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in the district court. See Hagestad v. Tragesser, 49 F.3d 1430, 1434 (9th Cir.

1 1995). Therefore, a party seeking to file materials under seal bears the burden of overcoming that
2 presumption by showing that the materials are covered by an operative protective order and are
3 also deserving of confidentiality. See Foltz v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 331 F.3d 1122, 1135
4 (9th Cir. 2005). Specifically, a party must “articulate compelling reasons supported by specific
5 factual findings that outweigh the general history of access and the public policies favoring
6 disclosure.” Kamakana, City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 2006)
7 (internal citations omitted).

8 Here, in this intellectual property action, the court has entered a protective order governing
9 documentation and testimony that is confidential to the parties’ internal research and development,
10 internal business strategies, and other highly sensitive areas. The court has reviewed the documents
11 and pleadings on file in this matter and finds that the documents at issue in the present motions
12 contain information that is either designated “Confidential” and/or “Highly Confidential” under the 13 protective order. The court finds that the parties have satisfied their burdens to show compelling
14 reasons for filing the various pleadings under seal. Further, the court notes that the parties 15 appropriately filed redacted versions of the same pleadings for public record. Accordingly, the 16 court shall grant the parties’ motions.

18 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parties’ various motions to seal (Doc. ##926, 962, 19 974, 983) are GRANTED.

20 IT IS SO ORDERED.

21 DATED this 8th day of February, 2016.
